Round 8

25 June 2022

Finals battle set to heat up

As we enter the second half of the Mojo Homes Illawarra Cup season a full weekend of fixtures are set to go ahead in Round 8, with each game becoming more crucial as the season progresses.

This weekend is headlined by a clash between the two Shire based teams. Cronulla-Caringbah posted their first win in the competition last weekend, and will be hoping to upset De La Salle on their home turf at Captain Cook Oval.

Another exciting fixture will be the second vs third clash between Thirroul and Western Suburbs - our Match of the Round, live and free on Bar TV.

The Butchers will be looking to get one back over Wests, who won their last meeting 24-10 in the "catch-up" round over the June long weekend.

Elsewhere, Corrimal host Collegians on the back oval at Ziems Park, while Helensburgh play a vital match for their finals chances at home against Dapto.

The competition has now reached the halfway point, with Collegians, Thirroul and Western Suburbs having all won five of their six matches.

Collies are just ahead of the Butchers and Devils on points differential, while De La Salle sit in fourth. Helensburgh are currently three competition points outside of the top 4, while Dapto, Cronulla-Caringbah and Corrimal are slightly further adrift in the bottom three positions.
